

Cyclist killed near Mole Creek

Posted 4 hours 32 minutes ago

Tasmania's road toll stands at 18 after the death of a Victorian cyclist in the north-west yesterday.

- Map: Mole Creek 7304

The 61-year-old woman was riding in an organised tour group on Union Bridge Road near Mole Creek when she lost control of her bike.

She left the road and was thrown from the bike, dying at the scene from her injuries.

Meanwhile, police are investigating the circumstances that led to a teenage boy being run over at Bridgewater, north of Hobart, yesterday.

The 13-year-old was run over on Cove Hill Road about 3pm.

He was taken to the Royal Hobart Hospital with serious but not life threatening injuries.

Tags: road-accidents, mole-creek-7304